THE PULSE

NEWS OF THE NEW ENGLAND DEACONESS HOSPITAL

VOL. IX, No. 4 BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS MAY, 1956

Friends Vote $3000 To Special Care Unit

If you went to the Vienna Choir Boys Concert, you have helped finance the new Special Care Unit for critically ill patients.

The entire proceeds of the concert — $2500 — was voted to help launch the unit by the Friends of the Deaconess Hospital at their April board meeting. In addition, the Friends voted another hard-earned amount of $500 for a total gift of $3000 to this newest Deaconess need. It will be located on Deaconess III South.

The Special Care Unit, under study by hospital officials for several months, will provide for intense, round-the-clock nursing care for our most critically ill patients. It will include a comfortable area for worried families of patients being cared for by the special unit.

Again, the Friends of the Deaconess have met a major current need of the hospital and substantially contributed to our efforts to give only the best possible care to our patients.

Edward G. McGrath Appointed Director Of Public Relations

An unassuming, likable and talented man is moving into the Public Relations Office on Deaconess I.

The appointment of Mr. Edward G. McGrath of Roslindale, veteran newspaper and public relations man, as Director of Public Relations is announced by Mr. Lowry. He succeeds Miss Barbara York, who is leaving the Deaconess to be married and will live in Manchester, N. H.

Mr. McGrath has recently been a desk editor for The Boston Post. During a period of five years with The Post, he was also a Sunday feature writer, general assignment reporter and re-write man. His by-line is known throughout New England in connection with stories on science, medicine, education, the theater and a wide range of human interest subjects.

A graduate of Boston College in 1942, "Ed" McGrath has been jet propelled ever since. First came service in the Pacific and Far East combat areas during World War II, with the U. S. Submarine Force. At the end of the SPIRE RAISING — Stainless steel spire 20 feet high and weighing almost a ton leaves ground by huge crane for destination on top of the Arthur T. Dooley Chapel on May 8. Dedication of the chapel is tentatively planned for the last week in June.

(continued on page 5)

SCHOOL OF NURSING GRADUATES RECORD CLASS OF 74; HONORS RECEIVED BY NINE

The New England Deaconess Hospital School of Nursing graduated the largest class in its history at the school's 58th commencement, held on Tuesday night, May 15, in John Hancock Hall. There were 74 graduates.

Nine members of the class received their diplomas with honorable mention. The $200 Alumnae Association scholarship for graduate study awarded annually to the outstanding nurse of the graduating class went to Miss Margaret L. Albright of Glen Burnie, Md. Miss Albright was the winner of the Faculty Council Award for undergraduates at the two previous commencements.

The eight additional graduates who received honorable mention were Miss Mary E. Keenan of West Newton; Miss Barbara Howell of Weston; Miss Lois Eckstrom of Brockton; Miss Ann Joyce

(continued on page 2)

DISTINGUISHED VISITOR — Miss Anna E. Hall, 85, graduate of the Old Deaconess Training School in 1901, wears the dress of the founders of the New England Deaconess Hospital. She is shown visiting with Miss Orianna F. Harding of the Admitting Office, an original Deaconess of the hospital.

Training School Graduate of 1901 Visits Deaconess

Miss Anna E. Hall of Atlanta, Ga., missionary in Liberia, West Africa, for 25 years, was a distinguished visitor to the Deaconess this month.

In Boston to attend a reunion of Deaconesses of the Methodist Church, she was the guest of Miss Orianna F. Harding of the Admitting Office.

Miss Hall was graduated from the Old Deaconess Training School, from which our School of Nursing grew, in 1901! She came to the training school, next door to the original Deaconess Hospital on Massachusetts Avenue, after receiving a degree from Clark University.

She trained to be a missionary and first did Deaconess work at the Central Methodist Church in Atlanta. In 1906 she received a call from the Methodist Board of Foreign Missions and executed her original plan — to become a missionary. Then began 25 years of service to the people of Liberia.

She came home to "retire" in 1932. Miss Hall, at 85, is still an active parish worker in the Central Methodist Church in Atlanta.

* * *

Last December, as a guest of the Liberian government, Miss Hall flew to Liberia for the inauguration of President W. V. S. Tubman. While she was there she was knighted by President Tubman for "services rendered" to the country. She came to Boston by the more conservative method of train travel. While she was here, Miss Hall also attended graduation exercises of the School of Nursing.

A hardy church worker and woman, Miss Hall was teacher, doctor, nurse, and evangelist to the people of Liberia.

74 Receive Deaconess Diplomas

(continued from page 1)

of Lynnfield Center; Mrs. Juanita Settele Davis of South Weymouth; Miss Joan Shaw of Manchester, N. H.; Miss Helen Wolchock of Sanford, Me., and Miss Phyllis Gale of Pittsfield.

Dr. Carl S. Ell, president of Northeastern University and for many years a member of the Deaconess Corporation, gave the commencement address. He spoke on "The Twin Ideals." Dr. Ell said the twin ideals that have made America a boon to both men and women are "equality of opportunity on the one hand and equality of respect on the other."

* * *

Dr. Shields Warren, chief pathologist of the hospital, gave the charge to the graduates. He said, "I charge you to keep all the skill, all the knowledge you have, but above all to keep close the Golden Rule and to keep close the fact that you do your work best when you love your neighbor as yourself."

In a brief message to the graduates, Miss Mildred B. Newton, school director, said that "ones' conscience is the best supervisor a nurse ever had." Miss Newton made the honor announcements for the graduating class and the first and second year classes.

In the class of 1957, Miss Joanne Kemmer of Braintree received the Faculty Council Award as the outstanding girl of the class. Miss Beverly Burt of Wollaston was announced as the winner of the Faculty Council Award for the class of 1958.

* * *

Honorable mentions for the year in the class of 1957 were received by Miss Elizabeth Short of Somerville; Miss Dorothy Smith of Melrose; Mrs. Sally Sawyer Stromwell of Madison, Me.; Miss Patricia Brittain of Weymouth and Miss Elizabeth Jackson of Montclair, N. J.

Two first-year students received honorable mention for their year's work. They were Miss Nancy Johnson of Braintree and Miss Janet Stover of South Windham, Me.

Robert D. Lowry, executive director of the hospital, awarded the diplomas. Bishop John Wesley Lord, president of the Corporation, presided at the exercises. The invocation was given by Chaplain Rudolph Samuelson.

A reception for the graduates and their guests was held following the exercises in the Dorothy Quincy Suite of the John Hancock Building.

Baccalaureate services for the class of 1956 took place on Sunday night, May 13, in the Daniel Marsh Chapel of Boston University. Dr. Robert G. Andree, headmaster of the Brookline High School, gave the baccalaureate sermon. The Student-Faculty Association reception to the graduates was held on Friday night, May 18, at the Sheraton Plaza Hotel.

Graduation festivities officially closed at Deaconess Night at the Pops on May 25, when members of the graduating class were guests of the Alumnae Association for the evening.

Other members of the graduating class are:

Miss Helen L. Adams of Portland, Me.; Miss Barbara Jane Anderson of Shelburne Falls; Miss D. Fay Anderson of Rockport; Miss Elizabeth Athington of Adamsville, R. I.; Miss Gwendolyn B. Bissell of West Groton; Miss Gail C. Chamberlin of Westwood.

Miss Bette L. Cook of Cranston, R. I.; Miss Nancy Ellen Cook of Belmont; Miss Jean Frances Coombs of Colrain; Miss Barbara Crouse of Reading; Miss Diane Cushing of South Weymouth; Miss Martha Johnson Davenport of Shelburne Falls; Miss Joan Elizabeth Davis of Framingham; Miss Paula Fay of Winthrop; Miss Gail Anne Ferguson of Newport, R. I.; Miss Shirley Ann Ferris of Bucksport, Me.

Miss Mary Fielding of Andover, Mass.; Miss Sandra Gilbert of Franklin; Miss Marianne Elizabeth Gould of Somersworth, N. H.; Miss Janice Grannell of Rumford, Me.; Miss Beverley Irene Gray of Portland, Me.; Mrs. Ellen Hill Grout of North Reading; Mrs. Constance Tower Hallamore of Brockton; Miss Gretchen Hapgood of Lynn; Miss Gloria Ann Higuerd of Quincy; Miss Barbara Hoyle of Oak Bluffs.

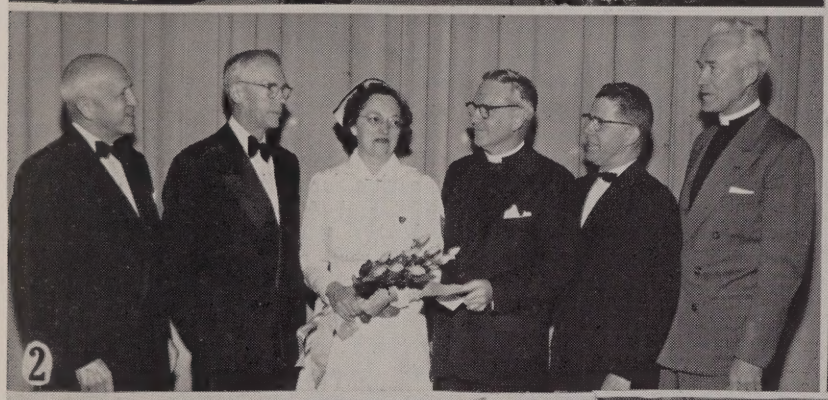
Mrs. Patricia Stammers Hume of North Attleboro; Miss Nancy M. Jackson of Raynham; Miss Beverly A. Johnson of North Quincy; Miss Ruth Elsie Jordan of South Peabody; Miss Sharma Elizabeth Kinney of Bangor, Me.; Miss Valerie Koskela of Sagamore; Miss Bette Joan Lees of Alton, R. I.; Miss Joan A. Lippo of Lawrence; Miss Barbara Minnie Long of North Reading; Mrs. Joyce Boynton Loud of Madison, Me.; Miss Audrey L. Lovell of Brockton; Miss Janice Elizabeth Marland of New Bedford.

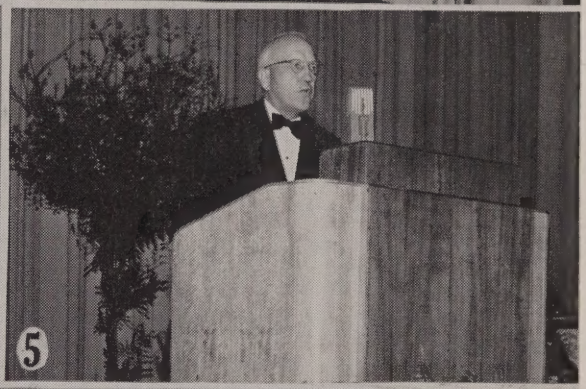
Miss Joyce Arlene Maunder of Bangor, Me.; Miss Elizabeth Doyne McNally of Waldoboro, Me.; Miss Eunice Bette Mitchell of Derby, Vt.; Miss Ruth Anne Morgan of Andover; Miss Marilyn Sandra Nickerson of West Bridgewater; Miss Lynn T. Parsons of Manchester, N. H.; Miss Nancy A. Peabody of Middletown, R. I.; Miss Marilyn Ruth Pearson of Seekonk; Miss Mary Evelyn Peckham of Halifax, Nova Scotia.

Miss Delores C. Peterson of Arlington; Miss Carol Irene Pope of Brattleboro, Vt.; Miss Nancy Ann Racine of Fitchburg; Miss Mary Ann Reardon of Auburn, Me.; Miss Audrey Scarpetti of Pawtucket, R. I.; Miss Margaret E. Snow of Agawam; Miss Joanne Spooner of Middletown, R. I.; Miss Joanne Georgia Staples of West Bridgewater; Miss Laura Edwina Stephanio of Gloucester; Miss Janice Stevenson of Whitinsville; Mrs. Nancy Duffet Strong of Concord, N. H.

Miss Helen Marie Thomas of Meriden, Conn.; Miss Lucille Elaine Thrasher of Rockland; Miss Sylvia Ethel White of East Princeton; Miss Shirley Ann Wilcox of Brookline; Miss Marjorie Jean Wilkins of Winchester; Miss Mary Louise Wood of Hingham; Miss Irena Ziff of Winchester.

LARGEST GRADUATING CLASS





1. Graduation march. 2. Principals at the exercises were (left to right) Dr. Carl S. Ell, president of Northeastern University; Dr. Shields Warren; Miss Mildred B. Newton; Bishop John Wesley Lord; Robert D. Lowry and Chaplain Rudolph Samuelson. 3. Dr. Shields Warren gives charge to class. 4. Miss Mildred B. Newton presents $200 Alumnae Association scholarship to Miss Margaret L. Albright. 5. Dr. Carl S. Ell gives commencement address. 6. Nine graduates received honorable mention. Left to right: Helen Wolchok, Joan Shaw, Margaret Albright, Lois Eckstrom, Phyllis Gale, Mary Keenan, Ann Joyce, Barbara Howell and Mrs. Juanita Settele Davis.

THE PULSE

MAY, 1956

NEW ENGLAND DEACONESS HOSPITAL

Boston 15, Massachusetts

Published by the Public Relations Department

Editor: BARBARA YORK

Advisory Editor:
DR. BRADLEY E. COPELAND

Reporters

Marjorie Rasta
Kay Waters
Jill DeAmicis
Geraldine Dunbar
Eve Schandelmayer
Jean Steel
Betty Perreault
Clara Algeri
James Halligan
Marjorie LeBeau
Nancy Sawyer
Marilyn Daley
Ermine Smith
Nan Mondello
Mary Egar

Artist: MARJORIE R. POND

Engagements

Dorcas Kelsey Blaich to Donald Herman Rice. Miss Blaich is employed as a medical secretary in the record library. The couple will wed in June.

Sylvia A. Cannata to John K. Hopkins. Miss Cannata is Messenger Supervisor. A July wedding is planned.

Ina C. Lemke, class of '51, to Thomas M. Lott. Miss Lemke is now a stewardess for Eastern Airlines. No date has been set for the wedding.

Charlene Mary Flanagan to Joao U. Lage. Miss Flanagan is on our nursing staff. An August wedding is planned.

Dorothy L. Vincint to Allen B. Wright. The couple will be married June 30. Mr. Wright is in the U. S. Army in Germany.

Miss Effie M. Winger Honored as 'Alumna of Year' at RIT Banquet

Miss Effie May Winger, dietitian-in-chief of the New England Deaconess Hospital since 1945, was honored as the "alumna of the year" of the Rochester Institute of Technology in Rochester, N. Y., on Saturday night, May 19.

Miss Winger was cited as "a distinguished alumna of the Institute and chief dietitian of the New England Deaconess Hospital who through vision, leadership and human understanding has made significant contributions to her chosen profession, to community health activities and to the well-being and happiness of countless individuals."

The presentation was made by Mr. Myron Estes, president of the Alumni Association, at the annual alumni dinner, attended by 635 RIT alumni and guests.

Miss Winger also received a silver, engraved bowl designed and executed by students in the School for American Craftsmen at RIT. The framed citation, aqua and yellow with hand lettering, was the work of art students of the Institute.

The Deaconess' chief dietitian is a native of Cleveland, O., and after graduating from RIT, did graduate work for a B.S. Degree from the Teachers College at Columbia University.

Pages from her noteworthy career — reorganized dietary department of the Rochester General Hospital in 1940 and

Miss Effie M. Winger

1941 . . . set up the first pay cafeteria for hospital employees in New York State at the Rochester hospital in 1942 . . . came to the Deaconess in 1945 to set up our new cafeteria and a cost accounting system and to plan, build and equip a new dietary department, a $650,000 project.

Last May, the new Deaconess kitchens won an "honor award" from Institutions Magazine for "highest standards of sanitation and for superlative achievement in storing, handling, preparing and serving food."

Miss Winger's professional activities are too numerous to list. Some of them are the founding of the Rochester Dietetic Association, in 1923; the presidency of the Massachusetts Dietetic Association in 1952 and 1953; faculty member for several dietary institutes of the American Hospital Association; author of magazine articles and co-author of a diet manual.

THE SPIRE IS RAISED — Mr. Arthur T. Dooley (center), chapel donor; Mr. John F Manter (left) and Mr. Gustav A. Hagen (right), chapel architect, are shown at the site of the Arthur T. Dooley Chapel just after the spire settled into place on May 8. It reaches a total of 66 feet upwards from the ground

★

Dr. Root Elected President of MMS

Dr. Howard F. Root, member of the staff of the Deaconess since 1923, was elected president of the Massachusetts Medical Society at a Council meeting at the Hotel Statler on Monday, May 21.

Dr. Root is medical director of the Joslin Clinic and former chairman of the staff of the Deaconess. He is a past president of the American Diabetes Association and currently vice-president of the International Diabetes Federation.

He succeeds Dr. Conrad Wesselhoeft. Other new officers are Dr. Leopold F. King of Lowell, vice-president; Dr. Robert W. Buck of Waban, secretary; Dr. Eliot Hubbard, Jr., of Cambridge, treasurer, and Dr. Norman A. Welch of West Roxbury, assistant treasurer.

16 Volunteers Qualify for Service Pins; 55 Give 100 or More Hours in 1955-1956

Fifty-five volunteers have given 100 or more hours of badly needed and much appreciated service to the New England Deaconess Hospital within a 12-month period since January 1, 1955.

Sixteen of the group are now entitled to their New England Deaconess Hospital Service Pins for completion of their first 100 hours of volunteer work during 1955. The members of this group are Miss Marilyn Babcock, Miss Yvonne Baxter, Mrs. Frank Dunn, Mrs. Lester Faber, Miss Elizabeth Frederick, Mrs. E. W. Horne, Mrs. Mary Lehneman, Mrs. Irene Moran, Miss Ann Millard, Mrs. John McKittrick, Miss Ruth Nagle, Miss Lillian Parker, Mrs. Casper Ranger, Mrs. Daniel Shanahan, Miss Merritt Strieder and George Tibets.

Veteran volunteers who gave 100 hours of service in 1955 and 1956 are:

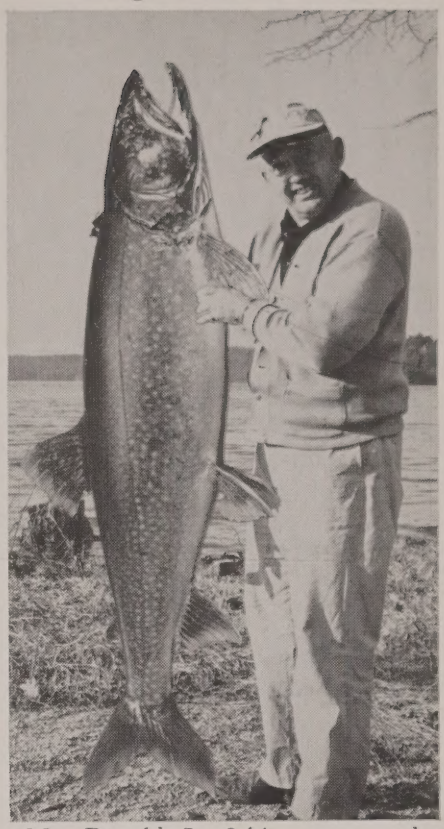
Mrs. Robert Appleton, Miss Margaret Breene, Miss Louise Brooks, Mrs. George Bullock, Miss Josephine Cass, Mrs. Miles Cowen, Mrs. Marcy Eager, Mrs. Arthur Fairbanks, Miss Blanche Fitzhenry, Mrs. Paul R. Frederick, Mrs. Lillian Genaske, Mrs. W. H. C. Gersunky, Mrs. Vivian Greene, Mrs. Esther Heintz

Mrs. Charles Hosley, Mrs. Gertrude Humphrey, Mrs. Charles Lamb, Miss Constance LeBeau, Mrs. Robert D. Lowry, Mrs. Mary C. Lyons, Miss Mabel Marsh, Miss Edith May, Miss Marjorie Mildram, Mrs. F. H. Morehead, Mrs. George C. McClellan.

Allen Orenberg, Mrs. Richard Overholt, Mrs. Henry W. Porter, Mrs. Henry Rittenburg, Mrs. Leslie Rogers, Mrs. Katherine Salt, Miss Dorothy Seccomb, Mrs. Richard Sweet, Miss Pauline Swift, Mrs. George Tobey, Mrs. Sheldon Wardwell, Mrs. Shields Warren, Miss Edith Wright and Miss Ada Wyman.

For their constant help and interest, we say "Thank you!"

Beginner's Luck



Mr. Donald L. Sabine, our modest director of maintenance and engineering, displays a 177½ pound land-locked trout pulled in from Lake Winnepesauke during a recent fishing trip. This fish is just a beginning — Sabey hopes to improve his technique and win a prize in the annual fishing contest at Winnepesauke this year. (For further information, contact Mr. Sabine).

(continued from page 1)

E. G. McGrath Appointed

war, he handled communications for the aircraft carrier USS Intrepid in the final Pacific offensive, during the surrender in Tokyo Bay and through initial occupation landings.

He broke into the newspaper field as both a photographer and reporter for the Portsmouth, N. H., Herald. While on the staff of the New Hampshire paper he won first prize for "Best New England News Story of the Year" in the annual Associated Press contest for 1949.

He was recalled to active duty at the outbreak of the Korean War and for two years handled press, television, radio, newsreel and photographic matters for the Navy in New England and Eastern Canada. He served on the staff of Rear Admiral Hewlett Thebaud and Rear Admiral John L. McCrea. Mr. McGrath now holds the rank of lieutenant commander in Navy Public Relations Company 1-1, USNR.

"Ed" was born in Boston on May 26, 1921. His home is now at 1490 Centre street, Roslindale. The McGrath's have two children, Ted, 9, and Patricia, 6.

In what spare time he has had, Mr. McGrath has been building a summer home in the Green Harbor section of Marshfield.

We welcome Mr. McGrath to the Deaconess!

Bond Deduction Plan To Be Inaugurated Here

A payroll deduction plan for the purchase of United States Savings Bonds will be inaugurated at the Deaconess on June 22.

Deductions may be of 75 cents a week or any multiple of 75 cents — $1.50, $2.25, $3.00 and so on.

Literature about the payroll deduction for bonds has already been distributed with pay checks. The actual forms on which you will authorize the deduction will be distributed to departments by the Comptroller's Office between Monday, June 11, and Friday, June 15.

The deduction will actually begin with the pay period ending June 15, but will appear in the check for that week received on June 22.

You may use the new payroll deduction plan for the purchase of any Series E bond. For $18.75 you may purchase a $25 bond. For $37.50, you may purchase a $50 bond. For $75 you may buy a $100 bond. There are also bonds of higher denominations, if you are interested.

Our comptroller, Mr. Decker, points out that the bonds will mature approximately 10 years from the date of purchase. They may be held an additional 10 years, however, and accumulate added interest. A $100 bond purchased for $75 will be worth $134.68 in 20 years.

New employees and persons wishing to participate in the bond deduction program at a later date may obtain forms in the Personnel Office.

Public Health Service Grants Total $37,639

Grants totaling $37,639 to three Deaconess research projects have been made by the United States Public Health Service for the current year.

The Public Health Service is continuing its support of the investigation of proteins in diabetic complications by Dr. Elizabeth F. Tuller, Dr. Pierre Moinat and their associates in the Baker Clinic Research Laboratory. It also made a new grant in support of studies of vascular changes in diabetics and non-diabetics by Dr. Jorn Ditzel, also a Baker Clinic Researcher.

The third grant, also a continuation, was to Dr. W. Eugene Knox of the Cancer Research Institute. Dr. Knox is investigating the reactions by which two important amino acids are metabolized by enzymes in the liver. He says, "If we knew how these enzyme reactions proceed, we would be better equipped to attack the larger problems of protein production which must be involved in both normal and abnormal cell growth."

RED CROSS NURSES WANTED — Nurse Enrollment Committee of the Boston Metropolitan Red Cross meets in the Deaconess conference room. Left to right: Mrs. Cowin, Mrs. McCarty, Miss Eccleston, Miss Lund, Miss Roach, Mrs. Lawson, Miss Donnelly, Miss Murphy and Miss Belair.

Class of 1931 to Hold Reunion Tea June 27

Members of the 25th reunion class — the class of 1931 — cordially invite former associates at the Deaconess to their reunion tea, to be held in Harris Hall on Wednesday, June 27, at 4 p. m.

The 25th reunion celebration will open with a dutch treat luncheon in the cafeteria at noon. Mr. Lowry and Miss Newton will greet the class in the Joslin Auditorium at 1:30 p. m. From 2:30 to 4 the reunion group will be conducted on a tour of the hospital and see at first hand the many changes in the physical plant.

Following the tea, the reunion group will be entertained by the hospital at dinner at the Hotel Beaconsfield.

Members of the reunion committee are Mrs. Helen Whitman Allen, Mrs. Rotha Hall Clement, Mrs. Hazel True Rogan and Miss Marion Goudie.

Laundry Team Wins Bowling League Cup

The Laundry Team again won top honors in the Deaconess Hospital Bowling League this year.

Mr. Emery's team topped Administration, captained by Mr. Lowry, by 82 to 79. Maintenance, captained by Mr. Sabine, was third, with 78 points.

Rita Greto was the highest singles scorer for the year among the women, with a 115. Hugh McFarland was highest singles scorer among the men, with a pinfall of 130.

High three-string totals for the year were made by Mary MacRitchie, with 286, and Mr. Lowry, with 319.

High averages for the year were made by Elena Palmieri, with 83, and Mr. Lowry with 95.6.

Bowling Scores

MAY 3, 1956

Team No. and Captain	Points
4 Mr. Emery	82
7 Mr. Lowry	79
3 Mr. Sabine	78
5 Mr. Osgood	77
6 Mr. Fisher	70
1 Miss Pond	69
9 Mr. Bettinelli	59
10 Mr. Millsaps	48
2 Mr. Nelson	42
12 Mr. Adams	41
11 Miss Greto	39
8 Mr. Spalding	32
High Singles May 3
Jean Steel	101
Charlie Schraub	123
High Singles for Year
Rita Greto	115
Hugh McFarland	130
High Three-String for the Year
Mary MacRitchie	286
Don Lowry	319
High Average for the Year
Elena Palmieri	83
Don Lowry	95.6

Correction

The last issue of the PULSE erroneously stated that the new Residency Program would make our affiliation with the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital and the Boston City Hospital unnecessary. This is incorrect — we will continue to have the medical residents from the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital here for their training in diabetes and our surgical residents will come from Boston City Hospital.

Red Cross Committee Opens Nurse Drive

Miss Muriel Lund was hostess to the Nurse Enrollment Committee of the Boston Metropolitan Red Cross at the Deaconess on April 26.

The Committee, of which Miss Lund is a member, met at the Deaconess to plan recruitment of registered nurses for the Red Cross. The drive coincides with the national jubilee year of the founding of the Red Cross Nursing Service.

Red Cross nurses are needed for disaster work, home nursing, first aid and in numerous other capacities. Miss Lund represents alumnae of the Deaconess Hospital on the committee.

Attending the planning meeting were Miss Agnes Murphy, chairman of the Nurse Enrollment Committee of the Boston Metropolitan Chapter; Mrs. Phister Cowin, chairman of the Nursing Services for the chapter; Mrs. Katharine McCarty, committee secretary; Miss Mary Donnelly, director of Nursing Services; Miss Betty Eccleston, her administrative assistant; Mrs. Gwendolyn Lawson, nursing instructor of the Whidden Memorial Hospital; Miss Mary Roach, Nursing Services supervisor for the Red Cross, and Miss Valerie Belair, chief nurse of the Red Cross' Massachusetts Regional Blood Program.

Weddings

Mrs. Katherine Berger, to Dr. Howard F. Root at the Old South Church on April 21. Mrs. Root is dean of the Chandler School for Women.

Sally Diane Cinanchette, class of '55, to Kevin Gorlon Dwinell on May 4. Mrs. Dwinell is currently employed at the Lahey Clinic in Boston.

Carolyn Hagar to Lt. Richard James Schnigle, USAF, on May 5 at the North Deering Congregational Church. Mrs. Schnigle was formerly a member of the Deaconess nursing staff.

Betty Ann Hewitt, class of '55, to Walter Whitman Forbush, Jr. on April 21. Mr. Forbush is employed as an air technician at Barnes Airport in Westfield.

Jean Macmillan, class of '53, to William Edward Bennion on April 21 in St. Paul's Church, Hingham. Mr. Bennion is planning to attend the University of Buffalo.

Nita Settele, class of '56, to Parker Byron Davis, Jr. on April 14 in the Channing Unitarian Church, Rockland. Mrs. Davis is presently employed at the Deaconess.

Evelyn Bernice Stratton, class of '54, to Carl Richard Daley on April 14.

Egilda DeAmicis to Dana Grover Witherell on May 12 in the Second Church, Boston. Mrs. Witherell is a radiological physicist.